From the Rabbi

I had not planned to write about Donald Trump again this month. I had the opportunity to speak about him and his candidacy through the fall and winter. But for those who may not have heard, or may have preferred to not have deliberately heard, I am not a fan.

Now by saying that, I do not feel that compels me to share publicly which of the other Republican candidates I might have preferred, or if I preferred any of them to Hillary Clinton or Bernie Sanders. I suspect that after almost 20 years of service to the JCCP/CBT, you know that I strongly oppose religious leaders serving congregations of any denomination making their personal political choices public, and especially endorsing any candidate on both ethical and legal grounds. That is why I opposed "Rabbis for Obama" in both 2008 and 2012, and opposed "Rabbis for Romney", with no less vigor. The synagogue can be a place for political discussion and even debate. It must be a place that allows for the free exchange of ideas so that we might learn from one another. But that can't take place when the religious leader of a congregation has clearly taken one side or another. And then tried to convince you that this is what G-d, the Torah, or the Rabbis of old would have done.

Yet the candidacy of Donald Trump, the presumptive Republican nominee, raises certain issues that do merit a response from the religious community. The controversy that has surrounded him, and what I would argue is the abysmal and irresponsible behavior that he and some of his handlers have exhibited during his campaign, have raised legitimate questions about how he would lead this nation, and whether or not he could bring healing and unity to a nation desperate for it. I would further argue that his campaign has exploited the divisions that exist between Americans to its fullest advantage. So just as I have publicly raised concerns about Hillary's emails, Bernie's seeming indifference to all things Jewish and Israel, Rand Paul's dangerous flirtations with white supremacists, and even then democratic candidate Senator Barak Obama and his background and longtime relationship with a Chicago hate monger/minister named Jeremiah Wright, and the church that enabled him, then I have absolutely no concern for raising issues about "The Donald" whose campaign was too often based upon appeals to misogyny, bigotry, xenophobia, and downright racism, or his inability until recently to disavow the support of white supremacists, or his justification of violence which his rallies have attracted.

Whether you agree with me or not, you must admit at least I am consistent.

Any candidate whether we like them or not, whether we plan to vote for them or not, whether they like Israel or not, whose words and deeds mock the very values that our Judaism holds dear, values without which this great nation of ours would cease to exist, must be challenged, and even reconsidered in light of those values.

Rabbi Arthur D. Weiner

And this is particularly significant during this time of the year as we read from the middle of the Book of Leviticus, literally, the very center of the Torah. At this very middle of the Torah is what scholars call the "Holiness Code". What is important about this section is its message, which teaches that the concept of holiness is not something that is reserved for just the Priests of Israel, but rather all Israel. Both individually as well as communally, we either uphold the world by adhering to a higher moral and ethical standard, and reap the rewards and benefits of that decision, or choose not to, and bear the consequences. Incidentally, it is in this section where so much of the "peace love and justice" stuff for which the Torah and Jewish tradition is famous, is actually found.

I want to challenge you with the following question. Each of you remembers some outlandish statement that Donald Trump has made at some point or another since he began his candidacy last spring. How could you not? He has dominated the news since the day he began his run for the nation's highest office. So remember one statement, one outlandish statement that he made about women, about Hispanics, about immigrants, about immigrant Hispanics, about Muslims, to name a few. Remember what he said about them and as you are searching for the grains of truth among them, and there are grains of truth which is why so many angry people have pinned their hopes to Trump, (and Bernie Sanders too, but we will deal with him another time) and let's try something. Let's delete the word, immigrant, or Hispanic, or whatever and insert the word Jews.

And let's think about that statement for a moment. I'm sure our enemies could find grains of truth in that statement as well. Of course they could, because within the last hundred years, everything that Donald Trump said about these groups has been said about the Jewish people. And millions followed and supported and voted for the politicians who said them!

Would you put your hopes in our great nation in a person who said such outlandish things?

From the Executive Director

Shop Til You Drop, or Not

"Cheap fashion has fundamentally changed the way most Americans dress. We buy a new garment a week on average and make regular pilgrimages to outlet malls and the sales racks of department stores ... Retailers are producing clothes at enormous volumes, and they've turned clothing into a disposable good. But what are we doing with all these cheap clothes? And more importantly, what are they doing to us, our society, our environment, and our economic well-being?"

— from a review of Overdressed
by Elizabeth L. Cline

Chesed – Righteousness – requires a concern for human welfare; it is the belief that our primary moral obligation is the improvement of human welfare. Styles change so rapidly, enabling stores to constantly change their inventory. That creates more jobs in the industrial countries, but those jobs are low paying with longer hours – essentially, sweatshop conditions. Is it hypocritical of us to give charity to the poor at the same time we create the conditions that breed poverty? When people are doing our work for wages we would not accept, when the resources of the world are controlled by the few, we must ask whether we are truly religious.

One of the intangible benefits of synagogue membership is that this is the place where we get to ask hard questions. It is the arena where we are confronted with the stark moral issues of our society. Judaism (and true religion of all faiths) calls us to live the principles of action, kindness and resilience. The synagogue community rejects complacency, breaks through bureaucracy, and challenges corruption. Doing what's right, not what's easy.

We know the facts. We know what we should be doing. We know that shopping doesn't make us better; it just makes us busier. What if, instead of being just one more place to look for "more" and "better," Jewish life could be a vehicle for escape from this compulsion? What if, instead of being driven to get more, Jewish life could be the place Jews awoke to gratitude for what they have in each moment?

In a society driven by the fantasy that perfection is purchasable – the perfect pair of shoes, the perfect house, perfect children and the perfect life – the only comfort truly attainable is the realization that we are blessed when we have those moments of acceptance, when we accept the foibles and follies of our family, friends, employees and colleagues and ultimately ourselves.

Chesed demands standing with the poor, listening to voices unheard, and recognizing potential where others see despair. It thrives on moral imagination: the humility to see the world as it is, and the audacity to imagine the world as it could be.

B'Shalom,

Norman Levin

President's Message

It is hard for me to believe that my term as your President is shortly coming to an end. A lot has occurred during these past two years. The roof, air conditioning in the gym, boiler system and lighting in the building have all been replaced; leaving only the air conditioner in the sanctuary which hopefully, will be replaced this summer.

The sale of our Midland Avenue properties should also be finalized during the coming summer.

Jacob Bauer

I have so many people to thank for their support.

To begin with, my officers and the Board of Trustees for allowing me to present and support my agenda during these past two years.

To Norman, Rita and Naz for keeping me up to date on all that has gone on in the office.

To Galo and his staff for their work in preparing our building for services, events and meetings.

To Rabbi Weiner for listening to me and sharing his thoughts on how we can improve our Congregation.

To Cantor Weiss for his insights.

But most of all to my darling Sandra who has been at my side for almost 51 years now, for allowing me to serve first as President at the Bergenfield-Dumont Jewish Center and now at the Jewish Community Center of Paramus/Congregation Beth Tikvah. Without her patience, understanding and most of all love I would not have been able to accomplish what I have been able to do.

Finally, I wish only the greatest success to Howie Leopold and his incoming administration, and to all of you simply "Thank You".

Torah for All: Beginners and Advanced Learners Invited!

JCCP/CBT Tikun Leil Shavuot - SATURDAY EVENING
June 11, 2016, 8:00 P.M.

Shavuot is called “the time of the giving of the Torah.” Shavuot evening has always been dedicated to the study of the Torah and other great works of The Jewish Tradition. This tradition of study in honor of Shavuot is referred to as TIKUN LEIL SHAVUOT.

We want to encourage all the members of the synagogue community to join together for the JCCP/CBT Tikun Leil Shavuot–Evening of Learning for ALL

We have changed the format of our annual event to include as many members of the congregation as possible.

Traditionally, on the first night of Shavuot, Jews throughout the world gather and study Torah together from night till the early morning hours. But this year, we are going to start a little early!

1. Immediately following the Minchah service at 8:00 PM, we will have our first learning session for the entire community, featuring Dr. Raisy Weiss. We know that not everyone can stay all night, but we encourage you to participate in this earlier opportunity. Several options for classes will be offered. Please choose the one that interests you the most.
2. Following the Maariv service, at 9:15 PM we will sit together (at least until midnight, if not longer), enjoy Yom Tov delicacies, and study Torah with Rabbi Weiner, Cantor Weiss, Dr. Raisy Weiss, and other members of the congregation.

SHAVUOT MORNING SERVICES – SUNDAY, JUNE 12, 2016

It is time honored tradition to celebrate Shavuot with a festive dairy meal. Join us for our Annual Shavuot Luncheon following our Services on the first day of Shavuot as we celebrate the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai as a community.

SHAVUOT MORNING SERVICES – MONDAY, JUNE 13, 2016

Services on the second day of Shavuot will include the Yizkor Memorial Service. Times are listed on the following schedule.

Please see schedule to learn more about what we have planned.

THE BERGEN COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL OF JEWISH STUDIES ANNUAL GALA

The Bergen County High School of Jewish Studies (BCHSJS), Bergen County's only weekly Hebrew High School, will hold its annual gala on Wednesday, June 8th at Temple Emanu-El of Closter at 180 Piermont Road.

This year's gala, BCHSJS' largest fundraiser, will honor Susan and Dr. Deane Penn of Alpine, Robin and Michael Baer of Fair Lawn, Julia and Roman Kosiborod of Franklin Lakes and Hanna Wechsler of Woodland Park. There also will be a salute to the 35 BCHSJS graduating seniors.

For more information on the dinner visit www.bchsjsdinner.org

MEN'S CLUB

Well, we all knew she was a top sports reporter, but who knew she was so charming and personable? And from Paramus no less?

We were delighted and honored to have Ms. Tara Sullivan from the Bergen Record speak to us at the Men's Club Spaghetti dinner. Questions ranged from professional football to college basketball to International Olympics, and her knowledge and insight into every facet of sports left us wanting more. Fortunately, Ms. Sullivan assured us that she would be happy to return. We can't wait!

It was a great way to end a year of Men's Club programming that included an opening day breakfast, our Annual Man of The Year Award, special meals for Chanukah, Holiday baskets for Purim, Yom Hashoah candles, and more. It is our hope to continue these traditions as well as bring new events to our congregation in the coming year.

So we wish everyone a terrific summer, and we will see you in September!

Hebrew School News

Marcia Kagedan

Shalom

This year has flown by and has been filled with much learning, some trips, interesting activities and all our regular happenings.

Just this past month we celebrated Yom Haatzmaut and Lag B'Omer, observed Yom Hashoah, had a graduation for our 7th graders and also a fun closing awards assembly for the 3rd-6th graders. Parents and grandparents of our youngest students enjoyed some time in the classrooms with their kids and the teachers and the refreshments were delicious. Irene Reiss visited with her collection of Tzedaka boxes. She inspired the students to create their own Tzedaka boxes and she has promised prizes for the most creative.

I wish the following students MAZEL TOV on their graduation from our Hebrew School:

Freddie Kates, Brooke Lesser,
Noam Levi, Eva Mehr, Max Mehr,
Rachel Meli, Ben Pyatski
Jared Sternberg, Lillie Vaks and Rachael Weiser.

I am happy to report that many of our graduates will be continuing their Jewish education at the Bergen County High School of Jewish Studies. Fred Nagler, the Principal of BCHSJS, has visited a couple of times and the kids are excited about next year.

In planning for the next academic year, we will have classes for Pre-kindergarten through 7th grade. If you know any families who might be interested, please have them call me or give me their contact information and I would be happy to reach out to them. We already have some exciting programs in place for the Fall, including DRUM TALES in September (look them up on line).

Have a wonderful summer and see you on Sunday, September 11th 2016!

Thank you.

Thank You!

Our JCCP/CBT has a brand new commercial oven, thanks to a generous donation from Sisterhood. It was installed five days before Passover, just in time for our annual Community Seder. The congregation greatly appreciates the Sisterhood's support. Thank you to Lori Cohen, the Sisterhood Board and everyone in Sisterhood.

Our wonderful Community Seder was attended by 105 people and in spite of the size, felt very heimish. We were thrilled with the attendance and delighted with the festive atmosphere and delicious food. Rabbi Weiner led a powerful Seder that was engaging and joyous. Thank you, Arthur Abrams and Arnie Brown and thank you also to David Luria, Nina Glaser, Mark Schneider, Wayne Zeiler, Lois Brown, Ralph Gerber, Shira Weiner and Aviva Weiner.

WHAT GOES BETTER TOGETHER THAN BLINTZES AND SHAVUOT?

Well, maybe add Tikkun LeI Shavuot with Rabbi Weiner!

Anyway, here's a favorite recipe that you can use all year...including break-the-fast, brunch, or even a fun dairy dinner. Rob only likes plain cheese blintzes. I always double this recipe... but remember to line up the plain blintzes and put some sort of divider there...so that he knows which ones are for him. Everyone else loves the blueberry or cherry ones. Ask your family for their favorites first before deciding which ones to use.

Enjoy and Chag Shavuot Samach!

Beth

- 2 packages frozen blintzes
- 6 eggs
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 pound butter, melted
- 1/2 cup sour cream
- dash of salt
- 1/4 cup orange juice

Melt butter in a 12 x 9 pan. Line the pan with blintzes. Put all the remaining ingredients in a blender and pour over the blintzes. Sprinkle cinnamon on the top. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour. Serve immediately.

TISHA B'AV SERVICES 2016 ~ 5776

Please join us on Saturday evening, August 13th at 8:45 PM as we begin the observance of Tisha B'Av, the saddest day of the year in the Jewish calendar. Tisha B'Av, The Fast of the Ninth of Av, is a day of mourning to commemorate the destruction of the first and second Temples, as well as many other tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people. Our service will include the Ma'ariv service and chanting of the Megillat Eichah (Lamentations) by Rabbi Avram Kogen and JCCP/CBT members Arthur Abrams, Judy Jaffe, and Dr. Richard Winters.

Sunday morning, August 14, 2016 at 9 AM

The morning service for Tisha B'Av is unlike any other morning service of the year. Following the tradition of Rabbi Meir of Rothenburg of the 13th century, we do not wear Talit or Tefillin at the Shacharit service. We mourn for the martyrs of our people on this day reciting special prayers after the morning service known as Kinot.

Sunday afternoon, August 14, 2016 at 1:30 PM

A special early Mincha Service will be held at 1:30 pm on Sunday afternoon. During the Mincha Service, Talit and Tefillin are worn, signifying the waning of the intense sorrow of the day.

Please join us for the observance of this significant day in the calendar, so that we may make real the words of our Sages, who taught that "...those who mourn the destruction of Jerusalem will one day be granted the merit to see its glorious redemption."

Sincerely,

Rabbi Arthur Weiner and the Religious Committee

Youth Lounge Remodeling

Eagle Scout Project

My name is David Wiser and I am an alumnus of the JCCP/CBT Hebrew School. To pay back the school for the years of knowledge I received, I am remodeling a room in the synagogue known as the Youth Lounge. The current state of the Youth Lounge is bland and unwelcoming. I will paint, tile, soundproof, and furnish the room. Along with improving the synagogue, this will help me meet the requirements for my Eagle Scout rank. An Eagle Scout is a Boy Scout who has reached the highest level of achievement in scouting. The room will be used by all ages, all year round and work has already begun. In order to fund the remainder of the remodeling project, I am asking for tzedakah (donations) from synagogue members and parents of the Hebrew School students. Your contribution is greatly appreciated. Thank you!

Community Affairs

Every Day is Mitzvah Day

On Sunday, May 1st we went to the Center for Food Action warehouse in Saddle Brook. There were no bags of food to unpack this time but Erwin found work for our volunteers. ## Sisterhood

JUNE MUSINGS AND MEMORIES

How did it get to be June? Didn't I just wish everyone a Happy, Healthy and Wonderful New Year? Wasn't it just January? Wasn't it just September? No, it was just Passover and when it was over, the first Friday night dinner following the holiday, for so many of us, was spent at the Center, at our annual Sisterhood Shabbat Dinner. With so little time between the holiday and the dinner, my wonderful, talented and energetic "sisters" again pulled together a most special evening. We talked, emailed, shopped and finally, chopped. The plans began as we perused the pages of More Recipes From The Heart to find recipes for kugels, salads and desserts we could double (and triple) to feed a crowd of 70! And yes, our cookbook is available for you in the gift shop or by calling the synagogue office. We discussed in depth, what to make: two fancy chicken dishes or Chicken Marsala and plain, roasted chicken? One of us shopped, another prepared the flyer, and, there were the calls to Ma'adan, the choice of color for the tables (teal and lime green for spring), the prepping, cooking and baking sessions (in our brand new meat oven!) and, the incredible results. (By the way, as a side benefit – the pantry in the kitchen has been re-stocked with all the essential condiments that didn't survive the Passover clean out – yes, there is olive oil!). All who attended the dinner can attest to the great success of our evening. It was a great pleasure for so many of us to be together.

In this last Bulletin before the summer hiatus, I want to take this opportunity to thank the truly amazing women who have worked tirelessly to make this another successful year for Sisterhood. If each woman in our congregation would commit to participate in even one event, make one phone call, come up with one idea... the sky's the limit! Please consider stepping up next year – the rewards are great – I promise!

So, how did it get to be June? On a personal note, our family has been looking forward to June, 2016 for some time. Our oldest son Simeon will be married to Ariel on June 30. Simeon turned 28 a few days ago and of course, birthdays and weddings give rise to reflections and memories. I can't help but remember when Simeon (as well as our younger children Gabe and Sophia) were toddlers at the Nursery School, coming home with their beautiful one of a kind, "hand-crafted" melamine Seder plates, the years of Morah Paula playing the role of Queen Esther in her burgundy bathrobe, the construction paper letters of the week which we proudly posted all over our houses, the notes pinned to t-shirts, the raising of little hands for "more juice", the June end of the year parties in the beautiful Nursery School backyard and so much more. Then, there were bar and bat-mitzvahs and weddings. Our children grew up in the JCCP/CBT. For so many of us, more than half our lives have been spent with our JCCP/CBT family, where we forged friendships and bonds that will last a lifetime.

As I sat in the sanctuary the morning after our Sisterhood Shabbat dinner, celebrating with the Chananie family at Michael's auf ruf, I looked around and thought to myself how comforting it was to be in a room filled with people I love, the people we've shared our lives with, from sorrows to simchas. Need I say more?

And so, in looking back and, more importantly, in looking forward, I urge every one of you to do what you can to keep our community vibrant and dynamic. The JCCP/CBT is our home.

In closing, I want to wish you all a wonderful, relaxing, healthy and peaceful summer.

We are looking forward to another great year, beginning in September.

Best regards to all,
Lori

FUN FACTS ABOUT SHAVUOT

1 Shavuot commemorates the day when Israel received the Torah.

2 The only Jewish holiday mentioned in the Torah without a specific calendar date. We count 49 days, or "Omer", from the 2nd day of Passover.

3 Shavuot, "Festival of Weeks," is one of five names for the holiday. It also goes by Harvest Festival (Chag HaKatzir), Day of the First Fruits (Yom Habikurim), The Stoppage/Restrain (Atzeret), and Time of the Giving of the Torah (Z'man Matan Torah).

The only Jewish holiday with a dairy menu.

4 In Israel, you know Shavuot is coming when you pick up your newspaper and recipe booklets drop out.

5 Shavuot is all about water fights, presumably because the Torah is often likened to water. In many Israeli cities, children gather for impromptu water-gun and water-balloon wars in the streets, public squares and parks.

6 Shavuot is "the" holiday for farming. The symbols of the holiday are the seven species with which the Land of Israel is blessed — wheat, barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives and dates.

7 Tikkun Leil Shavuot - staying awake all night to study is customary. .

NEWS FROM THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

As we begin the summer, we also begin to plan for the next synagogue year. And we understand that we must provide the resources necessary for us to accomplish our mission and fully serve the needs of our Jewish community.

For 40 years, the Board of Governors has assumed a special responsibility for our Synagogue. The Board of Governors is a group of dedicated members of the Jewish Community Center of Paramus/Congregation Beth Tikvah, who share their time and resources with our congregation. We are motivated by a love of this synagogue and commitment to its future. The Board of Governors work tirelessly so that our Synagogue has the financial resources to fulfill our mission and make a difference in the community. We understand that without a strong synagogue, our dreams of a thriving Jewish future will remain unrealized.

Once again, we extend to you an invitation to join with your fellow congregants who have made a decision to demonstrate their devotion to JCCP/CBT by joining our Board of Governors. Your participation is an investment in our collective future, and its dividends will offer benefits for years to come.

For more information, please contact Sheila Leipsner at 201-265-5115 or the synagogue office.

Dinner Club

Join us for the 3rd Annual Friday Night Shabbat Dinner Club

Let us set a place for you at our Shabbat table!

Shabbat dinner with two other JCCP/CBT families (some familiar faces, maybe some new ones, some empty nesters, some widow/ers, some kids) . . . around a table with challah, wine, good food, good talk. Then dinner again, held a few months later, with two other JCCP/CBT guests at a second host's table, and a third dinner, a few months later, with another combination of host and guests. JCCP/CBT's Friday Night Shabbat Dinner Club launched in September 2014 to incredible success. The reviews were heartwarming. Participants were delighted.

Here's how it works: There are four "cycles" of dinners between September and June. Depending on the number of Shabbat Dinner Club members, we hope you dine with a different grouping each meal. Everyone will be encouraged to host one of the three dinners, and be a guest at the other two meals (although exceptions will be made). Everyone will gather together for our 4th Shabbat dinner "end of the cycle" meal.

All the participants will get a survey so they can share any special needs they may have: allergies to pets and foods, dietary restrictions, and accessibility needs. While the meal needs to be kosher or dairy, the home need not be – so everyone is welcome. Once this information is collected, a roster will be finalized, and each member will receive a list indicating the host for each cycle and two guest families. The host then contacts guests offering possible dates. Other details about scheduling and information about Shabbat traditions will also be provided.

JCCP/CBT's Dinner Club is a delightfully relaxed way to share Shabbat, broaden shul friendships, and deepen your sense of community. We're happy to set a place for you at the table!

Complete this form: <http://goo.gl/forms/HhkZSafl8J>. Questions? Concerns? Contact Judy Jaffe (201.599.9197 / jafOranges@gmail.com) or Ruth Smith (201.261.2743 / ruthasmith1@gmail.com)

EVERYONE is invited to join– singles, families with children, families without children, empty nesters, vegetarians – so sign up right now (as in ASAP).

Shabbat Shalom!

Adult Education

"He who does not increase his knowledge, decreases it . . ." (Pirke Avot, 1:13)

Rabbi Weiner will teach a new summer adult education class, "The Right to Privacy in Jewish Law" for four Wednesdays at 2:30 p.m. or 8:15 p.m., beginning June 22. This class will explore the issues of privacy, confidentiality, and privileged information through Jewish legal sources. Rabbi introduced this important and timely issue on Shabbat, and has spoken about this issue throughout Bergen County in the past year. He will address privacy among individuals living in the community with others, and the tensions between our need for privacy and the challenges posed by the need to maintain national security. Jewish tradition has grappled with this important area of human relationships for many years. Come learn where, and what the boundaries actually are.

Look for new recordings by Cantor Weiss on the "Listen and Learn" page of the JCCP/CBT website.

JOIN US FOR THESE REGULAR EVENTS:

- Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow – weekly discussions led by Al Nahum – Mondays at 1:30 p.m.
- See the GWAN (Group Without A Name) flier in this Bulletin for information about adult daytime events, open to all.
