TIKKUN LEL SHAVUOT

SHAVUOT TORAH TEACH-IN

TUESDAY, JUNE 7 at 9:30 PM

Shavuot is called "the time of the giving of the Torah." Shavuot evening has always been dedicated to the study of the Torah and other great works of the Jewish tradition, such as the Mishnah, the Gemara, the Midrash and other religious literature. This tradition of study in honor of Shavuot is referred to as TIKKUN LEL SHAVUOT.

On the first night of Shavuot, Jews throughout the world gather and study Torah together from night until the early morning hours. From 9:30 p.m. in the evening until at least midnight, we will sit together, enjoy Yom Tov delicacies and study Torah with Rabbi Weiner.

Come and enjoy this inspiring, lively evening of Torah study. It promises to be an exciting, enriching event for all.

CONGREGATIONAL LUNCHEON TO FOLLOW SHAVUOT SERVICES — WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8

It is a time-honored tradition to celebrate Shavuot with a festive dairy meal. Join us for our Annual Shavuot Luncheon following our services on the first day of Shavuot. It will all add up to a joyful celebration of this festival celebrating the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai.

We look forward to seeing you there.

From the Rabbi

Rabbi Arthur D. Weiner

I recently attended the annual convention of the Rabbinical Assembly, the international professional organization of Conservative rabbis. Over the 22 years since my ordination, I have attended many of these conventions. Though I have always enjoyed and learned from the conventions, this may have been the most important one I have attended. For this year, like no prior year, we grappled with the challenges and issues, and frankly the many problems, facing our "brand" of Judaism.

Over the past generation, the question of what the various denominations (Reform, Conservative and Orthodox) actually mean or whether we really need such labels, or whether we have reached a "post denominational" age in American Judaism, has occupied the thoughts of great philosophers and teachers, as well as many laypeople. As important as those questions may be (I personally am unconvinced as to their importance, but that's another matter), the fact is that most Jews who are involved on some level in communal Jewish life do define themselves according to one of the major denominations. That alone makes them important.

Different approaches to questions of God, Torah, Jewish life, philosophy and observance mandate that institutions, organizations and even schools that train rabbis, cantors and teachers be created to meet these different needs and expectations. And in the marketplace of ideas that is America in general, and American religious life in particular, denominations are important. They have much to add to the conversations on how best to express our Jewish character and identity, and share it with future generations.

Jews affiliated with the Conservative movement occupy the leadership of the organizational life of American Judaism. Whether it is in pro-Israel activism, philanthropy, self defense and especially the Jewish federation system, Jews affiliated with our vision for Jewish life disproportionately fund and staff and comprise the lay leadership. Yet at the same time, the organizations that are at the heart of the Conservative movement are in trouble. We have lost synagogues, our segment of American Judaism is aging more rapidly than others, and too many of our most committed youth leave and find their spiritual homes elsewhere. Many of the growing number of independent minyanim — perceived as the most exciting areas of religious activity — are led by Conservative rabbis and laypeople who, although practicing Conservative Judaism, want nothing to do with the movement.

Now that sounds depressing. So how can it be that this was one of the best conventions ever?

The answer is simple. Conservative Judaism grew at an exponential rate during the post-World War II war era due to a specific set of factors. But those factors are no longer part of American life, and the effect of their absence upon our segment of American Judaism can no longer be ignored.

So now, like at no other time in the 22 years since my ordination, a real soul searching is taking place, where synagogues, rabbis and lay people, whose devotion to Judaism matches their bold vision for the future, are engaged in real conversations about what works and what does not work. For the first time in a long time, not only are we diagnosing problems but working, cooperatively and creatively, to fix things. I am optimistic that we will see quantifiable improvements in our status and well being soon.

I can't overstate the importance of this. A strong Conservative movement is vital to health and well being of not only those who espouse it, but also to the entire American Jewish community. I have only appreciation and respect for Orthodox and Reform Judaism, and their leaders and institutions. But together they will serve only a portion of American Jews — and a small one at that. As we know from our observations of Jewish religious life in Europe where the Conservative movement is relatively small, or in Israel, where the control of Judaism by Israel's religious parties unfairly stifles the growth of Conservative Judaism (though despite the obstacles placed before it, it is growing) the lack of a strong center in Jewish religious life has had a negative impact on the general condition of the Jewish community. Yet in America, Canada or South America, where the Conservative movement is strong and influential, the conditions of religious Jewry are much better. Where options exist, religious life is enhanced for all.

Whether in politics or religion, the center often is the most difficult place to be. Those who find their home there often are derided as lacking passion, interest, zeal, ideas — you name it. I am confident that soon we will realize again that as with so many other things in life, the center often is the best place to be.

From the Executive Director

Joe A. Herrmann

This month I would like to share with you some new and exciting programs that I have been working on, which will go into effect almost immediately.

The first program has to do with helping the JCCP and United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism earn a donation from the Jewish National Fund. Soon you will see a banner or link on our website that will allow you to click and purchase trees and other items from the JNF online store. By making your purchase through our website versus directly through the JNF site, JNF will donate 20 percent back to the JCCP and another 5 percent to USCJ to support congregational Israel programs. It is a double mitzvah! You support Israel and the JCCP with one purchase.

A similar program with Amazon is designed for non-profits. Amazon also will donate funds back to the JCCP for purchases made through the Amazon link/banner on the JCCP website. You can use your Amazon account for purchases as you do now or create a new account. By clicking on the Amazon link on the JCCP website, the synagogue will get credit for your purchases and Amazon will periodically send us a donation check based on your purchases. We will not see your purchases or any personal information; we just receive a check.

Finally, many of you have asked when we will have the ability to pay your dues and other financial commitments to the JCCP by credit card. I am happy to report that in early June, the office will be capable of accepting credit cards to pay your synagogue obligations. To defray any additional cost to the synagogue for allowing the use of credit cards, a convenience charge of 3 percent will be added to every credit card transaction you make. Of course we will still continue to accept cash and checks, too. We will provide you with more details and specifics on this program during the coming weeks.

Let me end by wishing everyone a great and safe summer.

JCCP BOARD OF TRUSTEES MINUTES

April 21, 2011

Rabbi Weiner reported that at this year's Rabbi's convention, they discussed issues and obstacles that affect all institutions, and the recent economic downturn had shown how fragile non-profits are. Jewish institutions, especially Conservative ones, have specific problems, and we as board members need to look at these issues and come up with answers.

Executive Director Joe Herrmann reported that membership count is at 440. We will repair the roof over the Chapel that is leaking. In the Sanctuary, the walls have not been painted in 50 years and the ceiling tiles, also 50 years old, are starting to crumble. Both need to be painted, repaired or replaced. Sidewalk repairs will be completed in the next few weeks, including the apron in front. The air conditioning units in the gym are 40 years old, and we need to assess whether to continue repairing them or make the investment and replace them.

The slate for our officers and trustees for 2011-2012 was presented as follows:

President:	Russell Rothman
1st Vice President:	Harlan Cohen
2nd Vice President:	Jacob Bauer
3rd Vice President:	Lloyd Hyman
Treasurer:	Paul Auerbach
Financial Secretary:	Harriet Kugler
Recording Secretary:	Esther Marks
Trustees:	Beth Chananie, Nate Fink, Michael Grabow, Lisa Mutnick, Marissa Rosenzweig, David Shulman

Fundraising updates: We have a tentative date of Saturday, Dec. 3, for our Art Auction. We will be adding a link on our website for Amazon, and for JNF. The JCCP will get a percentage of sales for all purchases made via our website for both of these links.

Early Childhood Center update: Judy Fox had the children participate in our food drive, which went very well. The pre-K class had a seder with their parents and a music specialist as a guest entertainer. In May they are having a Jump-A-Thon tzedakah project for Tay-Sachs disease. Their afterschool nature program was sold out. The ECC will be hosting a holistic nutritionist for an evening program with parents.

Committee reports:

Men's Club: "Our next breakfast is on May 15, and guest speaker is Michael Dressler. Our annual spaghetti dinner is on May 24."

Adult Ed attended a lecture at the Jewish Theological Seminary with Archbishop Timothy Dolan.

Community Affairs donated 28 turkeys and loads of food at our drive last week.

President's Message

Russell Rothman

It's been a most exciting first year as your president. It seems that hardly a day goes by when something is not happening in the building or someone is not calling or e-mailing me with an idea for a new and different event.

Last week, several members and I were at a synagogue in Springfield for a United Synagogue (USCJ) event honoring synagogue leaders and innovative programs in New Jersey and eastern Pennsylvania Conservative synagogues.

We were proud to see our immediate past president, Ken Glatzer, honored for his decades of service to our synagogue. In addition, our Drosh and Nosh program of adult learning, initiated by David Spiegel, garnered honors as a Program of Excellence.

As I perused the catalog listing of the other programs that were honored, I smiled as I recognized many that we already offer here and perhaps take for granted, to some extent, while the USCJ is recognizing them in other guises at other synagogues as new and innovative. For example, there was a Cawfee Talk with the rabbi and a similar one called Java Nagila, both Sunday morning conversations with their rabbis about topics of interest. The only difference between our established sessions with our rabbis and their programs seems to be the coffee.

Other synagogues were cited for programming for seniors very similar to our afternoon program led by Al Nahum. Also included were a cemetery program (plot sales, burial and perpetual care); Men's Club programs (they renovated their Youth Lounge and dubbed it the "Man Cave"); a Synaplex Weekend; Casino Night; Feeding the Hungry; and the Helping Hand Club (Yad L'Yad), volunteers who prepare meals, run errands and send get well packages to sick members, etc.

I mention this because over the past year, I have learned how special we are at the JCCP. We have done a lot of great things to be proud of. And we should continue to offer innovative programs and provide needed services for our congregants and community.

Several things struck me as opportunities for us. Sisterhood groups at other synagogues got a needed shot in the arm by offering more programs that included mothers and daughters, such as those about helping others and learning about charitable opportunities and volunteer positions, preparing for high school and college, domestic violence, self defense and yoga.

A Walking and Fitness program could be held in our gym, in a local park or even a mall in the winter or on a rainy day. This would benefit members of all ages. And it wouldn't hurt to see more of us riding bicycles. I wouldn't mind spearheading that effort! A cousin of mine in Rhode Island told me that the Men's Club Beer and Wine Tasting Nights helped revitalize the group and that it has become one of the hottest events on its calendar.

Ideas are recycled all the time; we certainly don't have to reinvent the wheel. But it will be my goal in the next year to find more ways to bring more of our members back through our doors, whether it's for daily minyan, weekend services, or for a daytime or evening program. We just need to think harder to come up with something more interesting than reruns of "Law and Order: Rockland County" or the "Housewives of Butte, Montana!"

Have a great summer!

Hebrew School News

Marcia Kagedan

Shalom!

I can't believe the year is already over! It has certainly been an exciting one, with many different programs and activities — something for everyone.

A highlight was certainly the CELEBRATE ISRAEL program on May 8. KOLOT AMAL, a high school choir from Nahariya, Israel, was our special guests. Together with six other Hebrew schools and their families, KOLOT AMAL participated in our Yom Ha'atzmaut program. Along with readings, done so well by the students, including Asher and Ethan Konigsberg, Ethan Schupak and Yuval Dror (four of our graduating students), watching video clips and enjoying the voices of KOLOT AMAL, the packed audience honored the memories of the fallen soldiers of the Israel Defense Forces and the victims of terror.

After a minute of silence, during which we all reflected on those we have lost in the Israeli wars and defending the state, the celebration began. There was singing, dancing, eating and getting to know our KOLOT AMAL guests. It was an amazing morning and we thank the UJANNJ Israel Program Center for co-sponsoring the event.

This was followed the next day by a concert featuring the IDF Musical Ensemble. Todah Rabbah to Gershon Rosenzweig and the Israel Awareness Committee, as well as to Irene Reiss, for making this possible. There was such positive energy in the building that night. The clapping, dancing and excitement was overwhelming. Everybody left that night with warmth in their hearts and a very proud feeling of being a part of the Jewish people and connected emotionally, and otherwise, to the State of Israel.

Now we all have to participate in the Salute to Israel Parade on June 5. It is not too late to join us on the bus and walk proudly up Fifth Avenue and celebrate Israel with thousands of others. We will have front-row viewing of the parade before stepping off to walk. Contact me ASAP if you want to join us and the UJANNJ cluster of synagogues. Alternatively, you can cheer us on from the sidewalks of Fifth Avenue!

Andrew Braun, Ariel Dadon, Rina Dadon, Asher Konigsberg, Ethan Konigsberg, Steven Link, Ethan Schupak, Zachary Snyder, Daniel Steinberg, Yuval Timen, Michael Vaks.

ASHER KONIGSBERG and YUVAL TIMEN received the Arlene Berman Memorial Leadership Award. ARIEL DADON, ETHAN SCHUPAK and DANIEL STEINBERG received the Kate Ross Memorial MENCH Award. RINA DADON and HANNAH OVADIA received the Steve Goldstein Memorial Volunteer Award. Mazel tov to all on receiving these very special honors!

A special Mazel Tov to Hannah Ovadia, who is graduating from high school and from BCHSJS after five years of her high school Jewish education. We are very proud of her and wish her luck at Brandeis University. Hannah received the Steve Goldstein Memorial Award in recognition of her volunteer work in the Hebrew school. We appreciate all that you have done for the school and wish you the best as you go off to college.

Hebrew school registration is still open. If you have not yet returned your registration form, please do so immediately so that plans can be made for the 2011-12 school year. I will be in the office through the summer months, so please stay in touch with any questions, comments or suggestions that you may have.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank APT for all its hard work. Roz and Jill have been absolutely amazing! Along with Lisa and Julie and all their volunteers, they are quite a team and always get the job done efficiently. Special thank you to Cindy Katri for purchasing most of the snacks this year. I don't know how I would manage without you all.

Last but not least, thanks to the JCCP Board of Education, under the leadership of Mimi and Amy. I am blessed to have such a strong Board of Education. The members work so hard to ensure that the children receive the best Jewish education possible. Todah Rabbah for your input, guidance and support at all times.

Wishing all my friends at the JCCP a wonderful summer!

APT News

APT was a little less busy last month following our busy and fun March. It is hard to believe that the school year is over. June 5 was the last day of classes with an awards ceremony honoring everyone's hard work and commitment.

The APT had a successful school year. We speak of success in terms of enriching the lives of the students that benefited from all that we do. We feel that APT offered the students great opportunities and programming, and overall enhanced their educational experience at Hebrew School at the JCCP.

From the wisdom of Maya Angelou:

"I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitt on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back."

We would like to acknowledge and thank the many one-handed catchers that have stepped up to the plate and helped us with the countless tasks involved with planning and executing every function, fundraiser and activity in which the the APT was involved.

Lastly, on behalf of APT, we would like to wish a very special Mazel Tov to our graduating Hey class.

Early Childhood Center News

Judith S. Fox

"All beginnings are difficult..."

~ Rashi

While it is true that all beginnings are difficult, the fact is that some beginnings are easier than others. As I look back on my first year as director of the Dora and Sidney Miller Early Childhood Center, I am grateful that this transition has been so pleasant for me. This is wholly due to the welcome and support from the entire ECC and JCCP communities, and therefore, some thanks are in order. I cannot list every individual who has gone out of his/her way to make me feel part of this community and culture, but you all know who you are, and I do thank you. In particular, I wish to acknowledge:

Morah Paula Javits, for her support and continuous mentoring.

The amazing ECC faculty, which has shown me "the way things have been" while also being willing to take a few steps out of the box with me.

Rabbi Weiner, for his unfailing accessibility to me and to our children.

Marcia Kagedan, for showing me the ropes and being a sounding board.

Joe Herrmann, without whom I probably could not have functioned.

Rita Miller-Greenberg and Naz Kashani, for their patience and humor.

The entire Board of Education, particularly Mimi Levin and Amy Tobenkin; The JCCP and ECC communities, particularly the ECC parents and faculty, for hanging in with me, and onto me, during my husband's sudden and acute illness just as school was beginning.

I have said this before but it bears repeating: If it takes a village to raise a child, it also takes a village to raise an Early Childhood director. Thank you.

So some beginnings are difficult ... and so are some endings. This is the time of year when school activities wind down and children feel a sense of closure as they get ready to move up to new classes here or, for some, on to kindergarten. Children list their favorite songs from the year and sing them a last time; they wash baby dolls and dishes and put them away for the summer; they pack up their resting mats and blankets to take home. We look forward to next year (and to a wonderful summer shaping up), but we also celebrate the year that was!

The Dora and Sidney Miller Early Childhood Center thanks...

- Sandy Alpern, for being our ever-ready photographer, sometimes at a moment's notice! Sandy's pictures of us have appeared in the Town News, in the Jewish Standard and in L'Chaim magazine.
- Dr. Fred Harris, for crafting new teacher mailboxes for the ECC office and custom-made cornices for one of our classrooms.
- Ruth Smith, for the gift of a mezuzah.
- Edythe Fried, for giving her time to read to our children.

Youth Group News

It is hard to believe another year together has gone by so fast. What a great year it has been for our Chaverim and Kadima youth groups.

We have enjoyed a wide range of activities. Here are just some of our events: Annual Fall Hike; Arts and Crafts; Outdoor Games at Mele Park; Movie and Pizza Night; Gym Night; Chanukah Celebration; Bowling; Ice Skating; Mitzvah Day; Mini Golf; Batting Cages; Parent/Child Gym Night; Theater/Improv Night; Basketball Clinic; Outdoor BBQ; Dinner at Noah's Ark; and Board Games. We also had a visit from the Bergen County K-9 Unit.

Whew! You can see why the kids have such a good time. The fun times will continue in the fall.

Thank you to Rita, Naz, and Joe in the JCCP office; Debbie Simon and Ellen Jay on the Youth Committee; and of course Marcia Kagedan for her help and support.

A big thank you to Matt Kaplan, Rachel Cohen and Elli Chernichaw for helping me help the kids. I couldn't do it without you. You are the best!

So, my young friends, enjoy your time off from school and have a great summer. Remember to always be kind to others and treat them the way you'd like to be treated, and always show respect to everyone, especially your parents.

See you in September.

Fred

We want to thank our dedicated board for its help and support in the past year and anticipate another event-packed calendar for next year, too.

We are pleased to announce the Sisterhood Board for the 2011-2012 year:

We will send a jar of honey with a personalized message to your friends and family anywhere in the U.S. wishing them a Shanah Tovah! This is a fundraiser; all proceeds will benefit the JCCP. Please note the deadline is July 25. See the attached flier for more information and ordering directions.

Community Affairs

Every Day is Mitzvah Day

The JCCP is well known in the community for our Spring and Fall food drives, as well as for our ongoing donations to the food banks in Bergen County. Please be sure to continue to bring an item or a bag of nonperishable food to the synagogue whenever you come during the week for minyan or a meeting. Most-needed items include hearty soups, canned meat and fish, Parmalat, fruit juice and peanut butter.

In the Fall, our first mitzvah of the year will again be Operation Isaiah, the communitywide collection of food on Kol Nidre eve. We also are planning a visit in the Fall to the Center for Food Action warehouse in Hackensack to help sort donated food.

The Kosher Meals on Wheels program of Jewish Family Services is in constant need of volunteers. Please remember: You can drive once in a while or every week. For hot meal delivery, you must be able to pick up the meals at JFS on Teaneck Road in Teaneck between 11 and 11:30 a.m., and make your deliveries immediately afterward. Frozen meals are delivered to clients who are not on a regular route. The pickup and delivery of frozen meals can be arranged at a time convenient for you. Please call Melody Sandor at (201) 837-9090, Ext. 238, for more information.

Bergen Reads has been placing volunteers in the Teaneck and Hackensack public schools as reading buddies for 10 years and is always looking for people who love working with children. Are you interested in volunteering one hour a week to help children to improve their reading skills? This one-on-one volunteer experience is so rewarding; if you try it you are sure to love it. Contact Sandy Alpern at (201) 447-3090 or at sandusha@optonline.net for more information.

If you are looking for other volunteer opportunities in the community, please e-mail Alice Blass at AliceB@ujannj.org or call her at (201) 820-3948.

If you love to knit and crochet, we are continuing to hold our knitting bees. Our finished items are sent to the Tikvah Orphanage in Odessa, Russia. We will provide yarn and teach you to knit; we'll even pick up your work! We usually meet on the last Monday of the month, but we encourage you to knit on your own if you don't have time to come to our meetings. For more information, please contact Elaine Cohen at (201) 447-2485.

Our Chessed Committee has volunteers available if you or someone you know needs temporary help shopping or a ride to services or doctor appointments. Call Eileen Schneider at (201) 722-1606 or Nina Glaser at (201) 262-1775.

Planning a catered affair? If you have leftover food, remember that Table to Table will pick up unopened trays and containers of catered food from your home or our synagogue. Table to Table is a community-based food rescue program that collects prepared and perishable food that otherwise would be wasted and delivers it to organizations that serve the hungry in Bergen, Hudson, Essex and Passaic counties. Call (201) 444-5500 or go to www.Tabletotable.org for more information.

THE DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT BULLETIN IS AUG. 7!

Men's Club News

The Men's Club has ended another busy year.

In May we had a breakfast featuring Bergen County Surrogate Michael Dressler. It was a very informative morning.

Also in May, we had our annual spaghetti dinner. Besides the delicious meatballs and spaghetti, we watched the documentary film "Jews and Baseball: An American Love Story." Who knew that there were so many Jewish Major League ballplayers?

Look for information during the summer about our upcoming events. We hope to have everyone participating on some level in everything we do. Our job is to do what you want, so let us know your ideas.

Until next time,
Jerry Menter and Joe Esrig, Co-Presidents

Adult Education 2010-2011 (5771)

"He who does not increase his knowledge, decreases it ..." (Pirke Avot, 1:13)

The Adult Education Committee's fall kickoff event will be held Sunday, Nov. 6, when we travel by bus to the new National Museum of Jewish History in Philadelphia. The core exhibition of the museum offers visitors the opportunity to explore more than 350 years of Jewish life in America through evocative objects, telling moments and state-of-the-art interactive technologies. The $50 cost includes transportation and admission to the museum. More details to come.

Rabbi Weiner will conduct adult education classes throughout the summer. Due to popular demand, classes will be held on Wednesday afternoons at 3 and evenings at 8:15. There will be an announcement to the congregation regarding topics later in June. Last summer, the response to (and participation in) the summer adult education classes was great. We look forward to your continued support of our program.

Stu Lehrer will continue his popular "What's My Line: Jewish Style" class at 8:15 on three Monday evenings: June 6, 13 and 27. On Monday nights in the fall, Stu plans to teach a class on "The Reasoning and Reckoning of Rashi."

Save the morning of Sunday, June 26 for another JCCP Book Club meeting; the book is "Cutting for Stone" by Abraham Verghese; the facilitator is Carolyn Kaufman.

Cantor Weiss will begin High Holiday Choir rehearsals beginning on Monday, July 25 at 8:15 p.m. All singers are welcome.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THESE ONGOING CLASSES AND MEETINGS:

- Drosh and Nosh – Wednesdays, 7:30-8 p.m. An opportunity to study the week's Torah portion with fellow congregants; taught by a different person each week. These popular sessions have been very well attended. Come and see what it's all about.
- Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow – Mondays, 1:30. Everyone is welcome to join these lively and popular weekly discussions led by Al Nahum.

What are you interested in? Please call Mark Topel, committee chair, at 201-967-9179, or e-mail to marktopel@verizon.net with your suggestions. We welcome and need your input.

BAT MITZVAH

BAT MITZVAH of ELIANA PEARL SAPIN DAUGHTER OF JOY & MARC SAPIN

May 30, 2011

Eliana is in the seventh grade at the Solomon Schechter Day School of Bergen County in New Milford. Eliana's passion is gymnastics. She is a competitive gymnast at Aeon Gymnastics in Hillsdale. She has competed throughout New Jersey and has advanced to state competition. Her favorite event is the uneven parallel bars. When Eliana is not training, she loves spending time with family and friends.

As part of Eliana's Mitzvah project, she donated 12 inches of her hair to Locks of Love, a public non-profit organization that provides hairpieces to financially disadvantaged children in the United States and Canada under age 21 suffering from long-term medical hair loss from any diagnosis. The prostheses they provide help to restore the self-esteem and confidence to the recipients, enabling them to face the world and their peers.

Eliana was devastated to learn about the fires in Israel this past year that destroyed millions of trees. Through JNF, a tree is being planted in honor of each of her guests formally invited to her Bat Mitzvah celebration. Her name will be inscribed in the Book of Gardens in Jerusalem. She hopes to view it with her family during her visit to Israel this summer.

Eliana would like to thank all of her Judaic studies teachers, Rabbi Weiner, and Cantor Weiss for helping her prepare for this special day.

Along with her parents, Joy and Marc; her brothers, Ari, Jared and Jacob; and her grandparents, Sonya and Gerry Sapin, Eliana was honored to have you join us on Friday evening, May 27, as she led Shabbat services, and Monday morning, May 30, as she became a Bat Mitzvah.
