Join us for the 5th Annual Friday Night Shabbat Dinner Club

Let us set a place for you at our Shabbat table!

Share Shabbat dinner with two other JCCP/CBT families each cycle (some familiar faces, maybe some new ones, singles, couples, families with children, empty nesters) . . . sit around a table with challah, wine, good food, good talk. Then dinner again, a few months later, with two other JCCP/CBT guests at a second host's table, and a third dinner, a few months later, with another combination of host and guests. JCCP/CBT's Friday Night Shabbat Dinner Club launched in September 2014 to incredible success. The reviews were heart warming. Participants were delighted.

Here's how it works: There are three "cycles" of dinners between September and June. Depending on the number of Shabbat Dinner Club members, we hope you dine with a different grouping each meal. Everyone will be encouraged to host one of the three dinners, and be a guest at the other two meals (although exceptions will be made).

We will all gather together for an end of the cycle "fourth" meal.

All the participants will receive a survey so they can share any special needs they may have: allergies to pets and foods, dietary restrictions, and accessibility needs. While the meal needs to be kosher or dairy, the home need not be – so everyone is welcome. Once this information is collected, a roster will be finalized, and each member will receive a list indicating the host for each cycle and two guest families. The host then contacts guests offering possible dates. Other details about scheduling and information about Shabbat traditions will also be provided.

Prefer a specific cycle to host? We can make sure you get that!

Want to participate but don't want to host? We will try to make this happen.

If you let us know when you are hosting, we will get a delicious bottle of Kosher wine to you!

JCCP/CBT's Dinner Club is a delightfully relaxed way to share Shabbat, broaden shul friendships, and deepen your sense of community.

We are happy to set a place for you at the table!
