

Jewish Community Center of Paramus/Congregation Beth Tikvah
Adult Education Classes on Zoom
Winter 2022
New classes begin Monday, January 24

Triple F-J (Fascinating, Fabulous and Fun Jewish Topics)
Mondays at 7:00 PM Starting 1/24
Rabbi Hillel Gold

Triple F-J will continue its eclectic mix of Jewish life and lore including Biblical texts and personalities, fascinating Characters, and passages in the Talmud. Rabbi Gold welcomes new students to the class!

Introduction to the Laws of Shabbat
Tuesdays at 1:30 PM Starting 1/25
Rabbinical Intern Samuel Gelman

We will learn about the origins of Shabbat and how it affects our lives today. Together we will deepen our understanding of and appreciation for the holiday that comes every week.

Taking Sides: American Jews and the Civil War
Wednesdays at 3:00 or 8:15 PM Starting 1/26
Rabbi Arthur Weiner

This class will explore the American Jewish community on the eve of the Civil War, the views of American Jewish leaders, and personalities on both sides of the conflict, and more

The Listening Room
Thursdays at 4:30 PM 1/27 through 2/3 and resuming on 3/3
Cantor Sam Weiss

Enjoy and learn about a wide variety of Jewish music under the expert guidance of our cantor. Discussions and music requests by participants are encouraged

