

The Jewish Community Center of Paramus/Congregation Beth Tikvah

is excited to present acclaimed journalist Cindy Schweich Handler and her husband Harry, who will share the fascinating story of Harry's grandfather, Fritz Oppenheimer.

Oppenheimer's life is the subject of "A German Jew's Triumph – Fritz Oppenheimer and the Denazification of Germany," by Ms. Handler with a foreword by Harry.

Fritz Oppenheimer was a German/Jewish soldier, and earned two Iron Crosses in WWI. The pinnacle of his military career came 27 years later, when he served as U.S. General Eisenhower's legal aide at the Nazi surrender in Berlin. His work included taking top Nazi leaders into captivity and interrogating Wilhelm Keitel, head of the Wehrmacht.

Sunday, December 7 at 1 PM
$10 per person for non-members
Members will be free of charge
Includes a light brunch

Registration is required. Please see the link below.

There will be no walk-ins to this event

No bags will be allowed into this event

Cindy will bring books for purchase and will be happy to sign them.