Why does Rosh Hashanah fall in the seventh month? Why does Hanukkah never stay put on the solar calendar? And what do ancient harvests, lunar months, and leap years have to do with how we celebrate today?

Whether you look forward to the Passover Seder all year or secretly wish someone else would host it, this lively new course will explore how Jews sanctify time — from the moment we welcome Shabbat each week to the way we mark our holidays throughout the year.

Our holidays are more than dates on a calendar — they're opportunities to infuse life with meaning, gratitude, and joy. Let's rediscover them together this fall.
